

National Gas Company introduces the “NGC V Tatweer” learning program.

As part of ‘NGC V Tatweer’ learning program, National Gas Company SAOG has partnered with Knowledge Horizon to offer customized e-learning courses to its employees.

This competency development program for employees allows them to develop and hone their skills with the flexibility of time and ease of accessibility. The content is developed and presented with a combination of powerpoint slides, videos, interactive learning all in the comfort of the office or home. The course is available in both Arabic and English language for the ease of understanding. It was initiated to make the learning experience enriching, engaging and enjoyable.

“National Gas believes that the company’s development is possible only when its human resource develops and keep themselves abreast with the market. These courses are tailor made to suit the requirements of each individual as per his capability. It allows the participants to conduct self-learning or have interactive sessions for efficient knowledge sharing and discussions’, said Nasser Al Rahbi, HR Manager, National Gas Company SAOG

The first session was inaugurated on September 10, 2014 at the National Gas, Rusayl office by Nalin Kumar Chandna, Acting Chief Executive Officer and Finance Controller. Speaking at the event, Mr. Chandna said, ‘the course gives the employees a unique opportunity to learn and gain skills at ones ease.’

The event concluded with an orientation program for the participants by Ivo Rodrigues, Head of Training, Knowledge Horizon.
