

National Gas holds annual get together

To celebrate the Company's performance and success for the financial year 2014, National Gas Company organized its annual get together on May 14, 2015 at Hotel Hormuz Grand, Al Seeb. The employee's contribution towards NGC's success was commended by the Management.

The event was attended by over 120 employees who came from all NGC's offices in Oman, UAE and Saudi Arabia. An evening filled with music, games and entertainment followed by sumptuous dinner was organized. The evening was filled with exciting competition and fun filled activities including a high energy game of tug-of-war that had teams pitting their strength against each other. An Omani dance performance by the employees specially choreographed for the evening added to the variety and entertainment.

In the welcome address Nalin Chandna, General Manager dedicated the progress to the employees and thanked them for all the efforts and contributions towards NGC's success. In his speech he said "with the dedication, support and untiring efforts of the NGC team, we were more than successful in not only exceeding the expectations of the various stakeholders but also in taking various initiatives which have helped in further strengthening the key fundamentals that this Company has always been proud of."

The department heads jointly honored the outstanding performers for the year 2014-15. The ambience was vibrant and filled with excitement as employees mingled freely with each other and enjoyed a sumptuous buffet.

Sanjeev Sinha, Deputy General Manager - Operations, gave the vote of thanks and thanked the employees for their valuable contributions and the event managers M/s Maniar International for the wonderful event and wished everybody the very best for the year ahead.
